

Boston June 11. 1873.

W. L. Garrison Esq.

Dear Sir: We shall not hesitate to print such reply to Mr. Alden as you or any friend of yours may wish to make. Let me assure you that there is no
feeling - on any point certainly - or on the part of any one connected with this paper as I believe,

but of perfect for you,
and a desire to do
what is right.

Yours Respectfully

J. H. Goodland.
